

IS DRUG & ALCOHOL USE CONTROLLING YOUR LIFE? YOU CAN FIND HELP

Perry Human Services in New Bloomfield offers counseling for substance abuse. Our counselors can help you begin the road to recovery. There is also help for family members dealing with addictions of loved ones.

Priority populations include pregnant injection drug users, pregnant substance users, injection drug users, overdose survivors and veterans. Other populations include other substance users and women with dependent children, adolescents and family members of substance users.*

Perry Human Services is a non-profit United Way of the Capital Region agency.
